Title: A Magical Place (featuring Christopher Max)

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com> martika:

you slay me
you bring me hope in a world full of fear
and you get me off to start that never stops
like wild horses on a windy day i feel you now
and you're blowing thru me like a melody within my heart, so magical christopher max:

lord help me
i've found a one way ticket to ecstasy i can't turn it down when all that's left behind me is a pool of tears don't let me drown
i'll never find another who can take me there where my heart can feel, so magical

chorus:

over the sun, beyond the moon
where all desire lies
thru time & space
a magical place
i've found within your eyes

both:

don't tell me
i know what you're thinking & it's all o.k. with me
cuz there's nowhere deeper i could ever feel i'd wanna be
with body, mind & soul
i give myself to you
wont'cha set me free?so magical

chorus

both:

pretty soon someday, one day for always we're gonna find, we're gonna find out that one day is today and we've never wasted our time with love

chorus

thru time & space
a magical place
i've found within you
