Title: A Mended Rhyme

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

He sat there so idle just sat on the ground I watched as he mumbled but I heard no sound I dared not go closer I dared not at first but somehow I got there

My son said the father I can not explain The reason I left you has caused me much pain I dared not come closer I dared not at first but somehow I got here

Sometimes I hear them in my mind Dare I join them now It's A mended rhyme at a preset time Join them now or lose them forever A silent mime The final chime Just join them now

He did not lift his eyes just sat there and cried Now I know the words I heard him say I joined him on my knees and then even I cried He wiped away my tears that's when I heard him say...
