this is where it gets really scary there's skeletons in your closet and there's monsters underneath your bed and if you are not carefull then you might just end up dead cuz the boogie man is lurking in the shadows and nightmares kill off all your dreams just remember that your life may not be just how it seems its a thing called evil and its everywhere its a thing called evil are you fucking scared
its a thing called evil and its everywhere
its a thing called evil are you fucking scared are you fucking scared the devil lives among us and he feeds on our desires god got killed of long ago by the movie of the week and the tv satire how many people take time to pray keep their faith and go to church every sunday not me thats all i have to say cuz i don't even know who god is anyways its a thing called evil and its everywhere
its a thing called evil and its everywhere
evil is everywhere fill your lonely heart with terror don't get scared when you see it in my stare evil
evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil evil
