

What can you say about tomorrow?
What do you know about my life?
What do you say to your daughter?
What do you tell to your wife?

La la la ay oh

Say Mr. Brown how about your daughter.
Do you know what she's done with her life?
And do you agree that we are lost here?
Well, among the lost we shall survive.

What can you say about the weather?
Is it gonna rain on my parade?
Is your soul as light as a feather?
Or am I just flat out going insane?

Say Mr. Brown how about your brother.
Do you see what he's done with his life?
While you're chasing him out of the front door,
He's chasing you with a butcher

What's that you say when the rain won't go away?
What's that you do when no one's looking at you?
Where's that you go after the show?
What's that you say?

Say Mr. Brown how about your mother?
Do you see what she's done tonight
