

Fires burning cities down
Your whole world's destroyed
Mutants crawl out from the ruins
To put you to the sword
Poisoned air in darkened skies flows across the land
Fear and pain they breed despair
A new Dark age is at hand

After the Holocaust
After the Holocaust

Peoples lives are ruined
By man they've ever seen
A choice of death made for man
By leaders behind the scenes
The end result of a Nuclear War
That laid waste to us all
Our civilization crumbled down
By nightmares that destroy

After the Holocaust
After the Holocaust

Now the final curtains fall
On the world that you have planned
Most of those who have survived
Will die by their own hand
And now the world lies deathly still Ruled by these insane
One can only wander now
If they'll make the same mistake
