Title: All alone here

---

The dreams of the city
Leave no room for self pity
We're all alone here
So all alone here

Always make the difference
Even when there is no chance
We're all alone here
So all alone here

And the Bethlehem radio is crystal clear and beautiful
We're all alone here
So all alone here

we're all alone here...
