

Maybe its crazy when you let it begin
Its all you ever want, all you want to start
And then they tire you, you want to throw it away
Still everything I bleed, bleed because its

All of me, and I believe it still,
It was written in a letter to me.
And bleed to sign my name and then
I'll send it in a letter, send it in a letter to me.

I'll be the one, be the one they take,
And I'll be the one they try to break,
And I've just begun, just begun now
And I'm not a lot but you can have all of me.
I'll be the one, be the one they take,
And I'll be the one they try to break,
And I've just begun, just begun now
And I'm not a lot but you can have all of me.

Maybe it's crazy and maybe even I'll fall,
But if I fall, then I will bleed and you'll see it's all of me
But then they tire you, you want to throw it away.
Still everything I bleed, bleed because

All of me, and I believe it still,
It was written in a letter to me.
And bleed to sign my name and then
I'll send it in a letter, send it in a letter to me.

I'll be the one, be the one they take,
And I'll be the one they try to break,
And I've just begun, just begun now
And I'm not a lot but you can have all of me.
I'll be the one, be the one they take,
And I'll be the one they try to break,
And I've just begun, just begun now
And I'm not a lot but you can have all of me.
You'll never see me walk away,
All I have is all I need,
So stencil me and watch me bleed.

They've stenciled out the world and then colored it in as more,
So stencil me, and watch me bleed,
All I have is all I need,
So stencil me, and watch me bleed.

I'll be the one, be the one they take,
And I'll be the one they try to break,
And I've just begun, just begun now
And I'm not a lot but you can have all of me.
I'll be the one, be the one they take,
And I'll be the one they try to break,
And I've just begun, just begun now
And I'm not a lot but you can have all of me.
