Title: All that i've given away

The telephone it never rings when you want it to ring.
And when it rings it's never the voice you needed to hear.
It's funny how the radio sings the words you meant to say.
And when you need a smile you only find a tear.

I'm in deep regrets.
I'm trying to forget.
But hope will never sleep while we're apart.

All that I've given, given away.
Is all that I needed here tonight.
The more that I try to, try to forget.
Is the more this empty heart seems to fight.
It fights for all that I've given away.

The day it never goes too fast when you need it to pass.
In every corner of the night loneliness sleeps.
Though I'll never hear the answers to the questions that I ask.
I often wonder how our future would have been.

This deep regret makes it harder to accept.
With love I paid the price from the heart.

All that I've given, given away.
Is all that I needed here tonight.
The more that I try to, try to forget.
Is the more this empty heart seems to fight.
It fights for all that I've given away.

When an overload of change has slowly turned you upside down.
The pieces of your life fall all around you.
And at times it's hard to recognize the place you've always lived.
Where's the sun, where's the sky, what is love, what is life, who am I?

Ohh who am I? I'm feel it now.
All That I've given away, the song I believe in for today.
All That I've given away, it's everything I'm living for today.
It's all an empty heart seems to find.
