we're gonna fight it till the end and we won't be beat down again your culture's fed into our veins, your preaching tyranny and hate to follow in your footsteps would be hypocrisy so now's the time to fight for our beliefs are we the only ones here who won't judge your sexuality?
are we the only ones here who want equality?
are we the only ones here who won't judge you by your skin?
are we the only ones here who know together we can win?
american culture usa
american culture kkk
american culture nazi skins american culture politicians
