Fast, just a second of no attention and nothing stayed the same
I got my head crashed an explosion
Through my bones and only darkness killed the pain
Have I fallen into your disgrace
Have you left me almighty Jesus Christ?

And if the sun begins to shine
I'll still be lifeless out of time
And if the moon begins to bleed
I still won't be fallen out of this sleep

Voices tellin' my name, I cannot answer
Their sounds filled with regret!
Have you come here for forgiveness that you led me down
When I was all alone?
Help me out of this mighty prison,
Open my eyes and lead me into life again!!

Crucified, hands are tied,
I can't break out !!!
