Title: And the river sang

I kissed the rock in her chilly dream
For she is the silence and I am the scream
She is the riddle and I want to know
Both of us sprung from eternity's bow

I kissed the rock, her lonely crater
She has sworn loyalty, I am the traitor
She is forever, I am just passing through She's the old secret, I am the new

Her silent heart touched, she helped me to know it:
She is the universe I am the poet
