

i thought i'd write you something to remember me by a comemorative for the 2 years you spent by my side but every day is a new mistake a new song to be written and erased why would you listen anyway?

finally i'm going on with my life what a big mistake it was, saving all my good-bye's i'm not the type of person to get over it it's stuck in the back of my mind along with the time we spent

what a big mistake it was, saving all my good-bye's
by the end of the year, you wont even be there what a big mistake it was, i wanted you to be there piece it together along with all the rest dont forget to write warm you cold shoulder, dont listen to what they say what they say

what a mistake it was saving all my good-bye's

i wanted you to be there
