

She's calling up her old boyfriends
I'm falling in love with her again
She's looking for a change of pace, she says
I can see that old look on her face

She says it takes an open mind
I think she means an open relationship
She says I can be so unkind
All I said was...

Don't think twice
If you gotta go, Mary it's alright
How much love can one man need?

Don't change your mind
Because true love is hard to find
But I'll find another...lover...

She says it isn't wrong or right
And me, I'm emotionally colourblind
She's waking me at half past four
I'm sleeping on the bathroom floor again

She's fallen for his new age verse
I'm holding back a level of consciousness
I know it isn't wrong or right
But all I said was...

Don't think twice
If you gotta go, Mary it's alright
How much love can one man need?

Don't change your mind
Because true love is hard to find
But I'll find another...lover...

I ran into an old girlfriend
On the corner of Varrick and VanDam
She said she had to change her address
What a strange coincidence...
