

How could you abandon me?
I thought you'd always be
there for me
standing tall
one and one
for all.

My support modeling
rolling as a team.
But instead on our own
enemies of all

(chorus)
seasons's change the fallen rain
will wash the pain away.
Make amends to help understand
how to live
today.

It's not your fault
I understand
Now I'm more a man.
You needed space to find yourself
and I'm in the same place now.

Living dreams
dreaming new
springing foward to:
"Choose a life
to get me by,
not a life that passes by"

(Chorus)

On we march in our April suits
On we march in our April boots
