

Brand new cars in bright new colors
They always seem to fade
Never felt so catastrophic
The words I Boring episode, pointless battle, constantly erupts
It's not fair to contain it
We don't know when were gonna die
We all show for a moment
Like a bullet in July
All my dreams have gone to waste
I'm under a bad moon sky tonight
Ever watch a boring movie? A mindless simple plot
Lives led thoughtless, a motion granted
A constant for the numb
Another heart is going to bleed
Another turns to rust
Another mind to have to read
In somebody I should trust
Really don't you run away?
Why do you have to stand right in front of me?
And have you ever felt so low?
Do you need it today?
And have you ever felt so low?
Do you want me to stay?
No. And everytime you take apart, my heart the part, you take apart my heart
