

i'm dreaming it so it must be true nothing else could look as good as you do and so we're a rocket goal up to where the astros flow into space don't hold me down

atom eyes
don't worry your brain
take a break from everyday sell the house, the car, the pain
atom eyes

i'm running away from your blues atom eyes with sprinklers are spraying perfume escape from the part of me there's a million heartstrings ready to fly let's pull them now

just be sure to live again
