

May the good lord bless and forgive all you've done to me.

May you wake up and feel its good, but just not the way for me.

And if you wanna share the moments than I'll put it down this way, you gotta love me till I die, and I drown your sorrows away.

And may you feel a little stronger than the child inside of you.

May you give yourself a moment, yeah that moment of truth.

Coz if I fly away and wonder what I ever tried to do.

My soul becomes one, with emotions of you.

But I love you till I die, so drown your sorrows away.

Well, if I had to do it all over again,

babe, I would do it.

Would've made a plan and save it all for you.

Well, If i had to wait a thousand years,

babe, i would do it.

Would stay awake to save this dream for you tonight.

May you find the love that gives you all you want from me.

May you say you find that peace in that little part of me.

Coz I was one and we are two and I knew thats all ment to be,

Babe I love you till I die, so drown your sorrows away.

May your heart be with the angels let them carry you.

May you build a good foundation and put me into.

Share the moments of delight instade of a constant review.

Coz my soul becomes one, with all that you do.

And I love you till i die, so drown your sorrows away.
