

Framed

I'm Framed in love again peekin at the end
baby wants to tame me
So afraid to live her life alone She'd make a happy home but only if she tames me

Hey

I'm driving her away
black and white to gray
back and forth i'll sway I'm driving her away
Hey
nothing good can stay
back and forth i sway

I guess I'll never be what she sees in me

blame

she knows somethings wrong she's seen it all along but she don't wanna blame me
so afraid to live her life alone
baby wants to tame me

Hey

driving her away
back and forth i'll sway
i'm driving her away
Hey
back and forth i sway
I'm driving her away away away

Hey

yea
i guess i'll never be what you'll see in me
