Title: Beautiful Angel

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Nobody wants to take the blame
Everybody wants to stay the same
All I want is what you had
I never meant to make you feel so sad
But you should have known it
Cause I tried to show it
So it wouldn't happen this way
Yeh I tried to show you

My beautiful angel
My beautiful angel
I only wanted you

To this day I can't explain
Why I stole him away
I guess I thought you'd run to me
I didn't really know how wrong I'd be Well you should have known it
Cause I tried to show it
I've been tasting your tears for too long
Yeh I tried to show you
I never asked for nothin
I, I only wanted you

My beautiful angel
My beautiful angel
I only wanted you

I tried to show you
My beautiful angel
