

Do you wanna go dancing,
In a club?
We can have a good time,
And live it up.
'Said if you wanna go dancing,
You got to wear a tuxedo,
And we could do the tango, wherever we go.
'Said if you wanna do the tango,
Then we're gonna need a ballroom,
So she took me by the hand,
And led me to her bedroom.
And then she did it,
Stripped me half-naked,
And told me, that her body, was sacred.
She said I could take it,
If I danced with her,
But somehow I knew
That she was an indian-giver.
I said "what about tomorrow?",
She said "what about tonight?"
She said "trust me baby, it'll be alright"

She walked to him wearing Stiletto boots,
First woman, wedding, then honey moon
This girl that I thought I knew so well didn't know where until we're at the hotel and,
We're on the dancefloor,
By the seashore
She said "these nights we dance together,
Is what I live for" I said
"what about before,
Before these nights?"
She said "Ask me no questions and I'll tell you no lies"
I said "what about tomorrow?"
She said "what about tonight?"
trust me baby, it'll be alright"

And so we danced, and danced, and danced, and danced,
So we danced, and danced, and danced, and danced,
All night
All night
All night

Twelve o'clock, the music stopped,
She walked away from me,
And took her shoes off,
And she said "that's it",
And I knew it, she said
"We can't dance, without music"
I said "we can dance tomorrow",
She said "we've already danced tonight,
Trust me baby, you'll be alright
It'll be alright
It'll be alright
It'll be alright
