

[Music: Harris, Lyrics: Harris]

Feast your eyes on
It reflects on
Can't pertain to
Can't belong to Vicious cycle
Faultless conflict
Self-preserving
Birth in regress

In the midst of confusion
The warm sound of shelter
Shelve the plans of expansion
The warm sound of shelter

Promising all
Deliver nothing
Dependently reassuring
Come to terms with
Serves no purpose
Self-preserving
Birth in regress

Set in motion
Visual concepts
Sabotage the birth in regress

To subdue the calm before the storm
In it's stillness. in it's stillness
To subdue the calm before the storm
In it's stillness. desperate measures

To feel so inworthy
To see the apathy
To turn the cold shoulder and stop
To desperate measures

Reversing in circles
A thought unappealing
How long can you maintain enthusiastic faces?
Any way, shape or form
