Title: Blood talkin'

---

Never sang words so sad i never carried the world in my head

But the words i used to say don't fit anymore on our way not even that blood talkin'

You'll find me gone soon maybe till the next noon

And your life will be so calm without sad pictures on your home nothing but happiness

No more mornings filled with smiles no more sensitive sighs

Cause the way you treated me today showed me i'll never see you again i'm wearing so well this pain.
