

Ours eyes
Spend more time as one than we do
All I
Know is the day. All I see is the light.

So please just feed
Me ether and breath your fire down my throat
To save me from my ever-martyred heart

Covers and sheets
Are my escape, but I hear you call my name from walls
You looks so good in shades of grey
So I'll wrap your memory around my wrist

So please just feed
Me ether and breath your fire down my throat
To save me from my ever-martyred heart

This will be my rediscovery, will be my revelation, will be my revolution
You've got to strike while the iron's hot to the touch
I'll tighten my belt. Bite my tongue. Rise to where the air is rare
So watch as my planes fill the sky tonight
Because "where we're going we don't need roads"

So please just feed
Me ether and breath your fire down my throat
To save me from my ever-martyred heart
