

I hope it's true that you and I
Could live our lives together
Why should I always do
The things that you say
Can it be right to follow you
My heart says so but I still don't know
You're gorgeous and wonderful
You set me on fire

Come away with me
Passion is the key
Even though it sometimes hurts me
When you're kissing me
I smile contentedly
Even though it sometimes hurts me

We're walking down an empty street
The sun shines warm and sweet
You inspire me a lot
God, you're so perfect
Please hold me now and make me glad
I'm begging you to seize the day.
You're gorgeous and wonderful
You set me on fire

Come away with me
Passion is the key
Even though it sometimes hurts me
When you're kissing me
I smile contentedly
Even though it sometimes hurts me

The sweetest thing of all
The best you can get, is when I found you
Are we living in a dreamworld
Tell me if it's fantasy
Are we living in a dreamworld
Tell me if we do
You set me on fire

Come away with me
Passion is the key
Even though it sometimes hurts me
When you're kissing me.
I smile contentedly
Even though it sometimes hurts me

Come away with me
Passion is the key
Even though it sometimes hurts me
When you're kissing me.
I smile contentedly
Even though it sometimes hurts me
