Title: Couldn't say no download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Damn
All i could do
All i could say is that i'm sorry

Listen
I know I really messed up this time
Just hear me out

[Verse 1]

Ooh,you should've showed me a little more (But still there ain't no reason)
For me to walk out on this thing called us
(But you keep giving me the feeling)
That I should throw the towel in (Cause we can't keep each other no way)
Cussin' me out in front of my friends not giving a damn how i feel

Chorus

I don't even want
(I dont wanna be the cat who plays tricks around on you)
You don't even know
(How many times I asked ya mama want I should do)
And it's my fault
(Now its my fault i'm in a situation i might not get through)
I got bad news that I gotta break to you and I know act a fool
But I gotta let her know

I had a girlfriend and ah
In between the week we split up
It was lookin so good i couldn't say no
And everytime I see wit her
I think about how I was picking dem legs up
And it's a shame when a man just can't say no

[verse 2]

And now what's done is done and i realize ain't no taking it back
I committed the worse crime i could ever do to my gurl (Damn she ain't gone never forgive me for that) Everytime the truth would hit me two way i would say that i'm on the way
Puttin it down,in and out, up and down, any way i say

[chorus]

[Hook]

It was bad
(i done messed up)
Gave up all i had for you for a fast
(piece of pleasure)
That could never replace you, one more chance (one more chance, you mean the world to me)
Girl you made mistakes too

[Chorus]
