Title: Don't ever

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Don't find it hard to believe you're alone
Don't find it hard to leave you on your own

You took your choice you raised your voice to me
Now you're alone and that is how things should be

Don't ever try to use me or abuse me
?Cause I'm not your toy
Don't ever try to cheat me or defeat me
?Cause I'm not your toy
I'm nobody's toy

And if you try, to get me back again
I'll tell some lies about you for your friends

You took your choice you raised your voice to me
Now you're alone and that is how things should be
