

I see the way you look at me,
You envy me, and it's killing you,
And you know it makes me smile
When i look in the mirror
Thinkin' how good is to be king.

Chorus

And don't you wish you were me?
The king of all you see
And don't you wish you were me?
It ain't that that easy
And don't think you'll ever be
Everything a man should be, cause
Don't you wish you were me?
Keep dreaming, you'll never be me.

Too soon, you'll be a memory
Left for all to see just illusion
And sometimes it makes me laugh
When i see your reaction
Knowing that i had become mighty.

Chorus

And don't you wish you were me?
The king of all you see
And don't you wish you were me?
It ain't that easy
And don't think you'll ever be
Everything a man should be, cause
Don't you wish you were me?
Keep dreamin', you'll never be me.

Inside my mind there is a freak
That drives me on past all defeat
You'll never have, you can't instill
The power of my iron will!

Chorus

And don't you wish you were me?
The king of all you see
And don't you wish you were me?
It ain't that easy
And don't think you'll ever be
Everything a man should be, cause
Don't you wish you were me?
Keep dreaming, you'll never be me.

The king of all you see,
It ain't that easy,
Everything a man should be,
Keep dreamin' you'll never be me!
