

(Demoversion)

I try to rise up in the sky a gran... is pulling me down try to clear the past behind my back but now I'm turning around...around...again still the feelings never last and streaming through my viens as all I'll know

chorus:
'cause it's all about the money it's all about the fame it's all about egotripping now I find it will never be the same all about the money
all about the fame
it's all about egotrippin now I finally face...

faces in my mind faces in my mind I hear voices in my head

I....I'm loosing again
