enraged with anger
so sick of society what have we come to?
This world is strangling itself angered by the actions of the militant I try to love but I can't see past your actions
I try to understand, but I can't I can't see
I can't understand
I can't understand you actions
I can't understand, hold my hand through the darkness
I can't understand, hold my hand
I can't understand
