If theres something i dont do i wont tell you
and those reasons left for no one well maybe that too
if theres something i wont say to make it go away
i tuck inside your point of view well thats from me to you put on your every day shoes
they make me nice

That i want tonight
cause youre a person who wants something well i aint nothing
and when you walk
and when you talk
about your stupid ego
i wont be there
cause im too square
to hang with all of your people
put on your every day shoes
they make me nice
i want some other every day shoes
they make me nice
