Title: FADE AWAY

I'll be there when the darkness falls
Everywhere when the shadows call
Hear the wind how it cries your name
Don't you worry there's no one to blame

Why, oh why can't I be free
Only emptiness inside of me
Cuz in my heart
I know you'd never stay
Tell me how long does it take
For love to fade away

I let you slip right through my hands
Now I try for a second chance
I never wanted to let you go
Now there's one thing you should know

Why, oh why can't I be free
Only emptiness inside of me
Cuz in my heart
I knew you'd never stay
Tell me how long does it take
For love to fade away
