

Farmers in the mid-west need good land
For their work so they can grow flowers

Crouched down between your walls bundled up nice and small you walk in with your graceful smile and ask me to grow you a beautiful flower

Please tell me you're not serious
it's not fair
Please tell me you're not serious
it's not fair

They want me to grow up follow the fucking laws so I can live on earth so I can provide them with a beautiful flower

Please tell me you're not serious
it's not fair
Please tell me you're not serious
it's not fair

How's it gonna grow
you expect it to grow
How's it gonna grow
you expect it to grow

it's not fair
Please tell me you're not serious
it's not fair
