Title: Fall into this download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Torn... away from all that matters
And lived by the wrong intentions
I know it wouldn't be too easy, not yet
To go somewhere I'm afraid of, it's made of...

Thoughts I'm receiving, making peace and
Then I know I'll just be there once again
Roll the ghosts and then a toast(?)
Thoughts I'm receiving, making peace and
Then I know I'll just be there once again, no...

Wrong, nothing really matters
And if I was gone, would it make you any sadder?
I feel half as good as normal, you know
To steal, what to steal, what's already taken
Here I go again

Thoughts I'm receiving, making peace and
Then I know I'll just be there once again
Roll the ghosts and then a toast(?)
Thoughts I'm receiving, making peace and
Then I know I'll just be there once again, no...
I think you know

That you did this to me
I think you know, that you did this to me
I think you know, that you did this to me
You did this to me
WHY... you did this to me
I just want to know
WHY... you did this to me
And it starts

Gotta fall asleep again, gotta fall asleep again
And I feel my way, thank you for making me talk
Gotta fall asleep again, gotta fall asleep
And I failed, I think you know...
