

Artist: galleon

Title: Fall of spring

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Early spring
he came across the mountains running from his past to liberty this world , his hands and nothing there to stop him who cares for human property

I keep my claim

He made his home in the valley by the river sheltered from storm and the silent rain without fear the deadliest beast in the forest the master of fire were to keep his claim

I keep my claim
Keep my claim

Strenght by time people followed his footsteps with them buildings it's an urban war buildings became cities it's a natural expansion and we don't need to hide in forests anymore

No one can own this land the forests and mountains demand the forces of nature runs free when we were totally disrupted we couldn't see . . .

No one . . .

No one can heal this land
no one . . .