Everybody wants a piece of some lazy Antichrist
That is what cut your face, you carry the news, that you got a gift to be given
Carried out, cut your loss, but don't you mean fantasize
And this is how we measure the cost, the joy and the pain, the 21 years of good living

When you look at me do you see someone with a future?
Music to my ears, it makes me happy when you tell me
This place is like a womb you knew so well from doing nothing
One day you will learn there is some beauty in the feet that makes you sweat

Gonna take something great to get me out of bed
And I woke up with a song, cause I had a dream, cause I had a vision of people
Lying in the sun
Sleeping on the rocks and stones
Waiting just to die
They we just fast asleep like lions
They we just fast asleep like lions in summer

When you look at me do you see someone with a future?
Music to my ears, it makes me happy when you tell me
This place is like a womb you live so well from doing nothing
One day you will learn there is some beauty in the thing that makes you...

Swear off the years of wasted time
Half divine
Half of what you could be

Oh, all this time they left this city
Yet sad and empty
Cause they're only half awake

When you look at me do you see someone with a future?
One day you will learn there is some beauty in the thing that makes you swift
