

I see a world that's full of fake and disilusions
I see no move in the history
Where am i meant to be?
Whats is my destiny?
The path i've chosen now has led me to a wall

And thought my mind perceveid i still was a blind man
And not the one who understands

For life's a mystery
Of things your eyes cant see
Faith is the key to inspiration

Carry on - carry on, my dear my friend
Carry on - for there's love that never ends
Carry on - carry on, carry on, carry on

So i began to trust in my instictive feelings
To live to trust and harmony
One day you realize
It's right before your eyes
Truth is the key to inspiration

Carry on - carry on, my dear my friend
Carry on - for there's love will never end
Carry on - carry on, carry on, carry on

In this world
Faith, hope and charity
Lead us to the one

Carry on - carry on, my dear my friend
Carry on - my love will never end
Carry on - carry on, carry on, carry on

Carry on, and you will see
Life ain't no misery
Carry on - carry on, carry on, carry on

Carry on, you'll see the light
Your star is shining bright
Carry on, carry on
