

Why do you feel the need to tell me about all your victories
Do you challenge everyone you see
And you think I'm impressed
The truth is I've lost all interest
And I'm sick of your B.S.

(Chorus)

Cause I don't wanna beat you
I don't know why you do
Just know I don't (wanna beat you)

Your life is just a show
That I see right through you just don't know
Did you think we all admired you
Well buddy you thought wrong
So stop coming on so strong
And put that chip where it belongs

(Chorus)

Well you still go on Puttin yourself above everyone
Just let me know when your bravado's done
Not gonna dignify
Your pompous boasts with a reply
No, it's not worth my time

(Chorus)

I don't care about your ego
I'm not gonna try to get one up
You gotta a lot of insecurity issues
But that's your problem
So stop telling all of your tall tales
You know they never meant a thing to me
It's just a defense mechanism and it's getting ugly

(Chorus)
