

Do you remember me,
Do you remember anything ?
Don't pretend I didn't make you laugh,
File it under fun from the past.

Well, I'm looking 'round the room
Some of the people I've loved.
Guess I remember everything
File it under fun from the past.

I could have been a contender, a contender for your love
I would have given you everything if I only knew how.
I would have given you everything if I only knew how, only knew how,
I could have been a contender, a contender for your love.
File it under fun from the past,
File it under fun from the past.

It was only you, it was always only you.
I never saw what other people bought,
I never cared what they thought.
Well, I'm looking 'round the room, some of the people I've loved,
Guess I remember everything.
File it under fun from the past.

You could have been a contender, a contender for my love.
I would have given you everything if I only knew how, only knew how.
I would have given you everything if I only knew how, only knew how,
You could have been a contender, a contender for my love.
File it under fun from the past,
File it under fun from the past.

Do you remember me,
Do you remember anything ?
Don't pretend that it'll make you laugh,
File it under fun from the past.

Well, I'm looking 'round the room
