

When I wake up
I find you're here
I should feel joy
But I am not even near

I don't know where
You've been tonight
I guess, you've been with someone else
But I don't care if I'm right.

I do not feel
No jealousy
If I would lose you now
I'd simply say: "It's destiny!"

I find you're here
Moving on
You're just doing what you want
And I can't find it wrong

I know for sure
You would be gone
You wouldn't stay with me
If something better comes along

I do not feel
Anxiety
I wouldn't be alone for long
That's destiny!

If I would lose you now
I'd simply say: "It's destiny!"

I cannot blame you
For a thing
If I would have the chance
I'd do the same... to you!
