

It's changing your colours every other day
You're changing your point of view, it's just your way
You told me that this was something new to you
But I'm not the only one you're lying to

So you go, you go and unroll the flag
Flag of convenience
So you go, you go and unroll the flag
Flag of convenience

You say that we could be friends for life
But I can't pretend I haven't got the time

So you go, you go and unroll the flag
Flag of convenience
So you go, you go and unroll the flag
Flag of convenience
Flag of convenience!

It's changing your colours every other day
You're changing your point of view, it's just your way
You told me that this was something new to you
But I'm not the only one you're lying to

So you go, you go and unroll the flag
Flag of convenience
So you go, you go and unroll the flag
Flag of convenience
Flag of convenience!
Flag of convenience
Flag of convenience!
Flag of convenience
Flag of convenience!...
