Lady!
So many nights he was Hoping
If you're feeling just the Same thing that he's Feeling for you
Now he knows that you do
'Cause you told him yesterday ...
He's depending on the words you say
And Flower!
What will your friends say?
My Flower
Now the time has come
When you just better
Make up your mind
Do you love him then shine
Don't believe in what they say
If they're friends they love you anyway

Flower
If you love him say his name
You can make him feel the same
Oh you're the deep sleep
That he needs
Under this black moonlight
Flower
Take his hand and pray he knows
You're his never fading rose
He'll be the deep sleep
That you need
The only inspiration for all time

Tell me
Why do you linger?
His beautiful eyes
Waiting to show you're in heaven
And bring you flowers
If you love him
