Title: For a minute there

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Thought that you and I were forever.

Until tonight I never felt alone. And though you never mentioned you were going.

I felt a chill go running through my bones

Across the room in silent conversation. I heard every word you didn't say. Lets go to sleep pretend this never happened. Tomorrow you won't feel so far away.

For a minute there a part of you was leaving. I saw that far away look in your eyes.

For a minute there my heart almost stopped beating. For a minute there I thought you said good by. For a Minute there I felt my world was ending.

For a minute there I thought you said good by.
