

Artist: Lonestar

Title: Front porch view

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

The only ground I ever owned, was sticking to my shoes
Now I look out my front porch at this panoramic view
I can sit and watch the fields fill up with rays of golden sun
I watch the moon lay on the fences like that was where it was hung
My blessings are in front of me, It's not about the land I'll never beat the view, from my front porch looking in

There a carrot top who can barely walk, with a sippy cup of milk
A little blue eyed blonde with shoes on wrong, cus she likes to dress herself
And the most beautiful girl, holding both of them
Yeah the view I love the most
Is my font porch looking in

I've traveled here and everywhere, following my job
I've seen the paintings from the air, brushed by the hand of God
The mountains and the canyons reach, from sea to shining sea
But I can't wait to get back home, to the one he made for me Cus anywhere I'll ever go, and everywhere I've been Nothing takes my breath away, like my front porch looking in

I see what beautiful is about, When I'm looking in Not when I'm looking out....

The view I love the most is my front porch looking in Yeah, Yeah
Theres a carrot top who can barely walk...
A little blue eyed blonde with shoes on wrong...
And the most beautiful girl holding both of them...