

I would give anything that's worth giving
I would say any line
I'd try to get you near to me
But you've never been one
To love being lied to
And this artificial side
Just makes me disappear from you

So I'm gathering up the truth
And I'm giving it all to you
If it's the last thing I do
Cause I won't be free till I give it all to you
There's nothing more I can do
Cause I won't be free...

It's not as heavy as it seems
All I'm saying
You don't have to drag it out
Kicking and screaming
When it finally comes
I hope you hear me
Then whatever chains us down
Becomes whatever sets us free

So I'm gathering up the truth
And I'm giving it all to you
If it's the last thing I do
Cause I won't be free till I give it all to you

Yeah I'm gathering up the truth
And I'm giving it all to you
There's nothing more I can do
Cause I won't be free...

It's not as easy as you make it sound
Not even when I try to sound it out
I try my best to make it come around
But it's not that easy for me
