download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

So I've been up all night thinking about the times we've had Sat up thought it might be nice for us to have a normal life Called on me constantly I never had a chance to see it all What all is in store for the road life

And at night I lie alone wishing I could see you Surprise

what do I now have to show for it all?
So wipe all the dismay away

You get to go to New Jersey while I'm stuck fifty years here Staring out the white van window dreaming of the deep blue sea What did I get myself into?
what would I just give to see you once more again?
Get a new life
I think you should Get a new life
cause the one you
