Take where the thunder roars, into the blazing light
The hand of fate is crushing down before me
The eyes of god have turned away, no angels are in sight
As I face the Final chapter of our story

And now I hear the millions cry, screaming into oblivion you take their lives
Hell is thy Home

Hell is thy Home, darkness thy destiny
Where you belong, no need for sympathy

The antichrist is back again
Disguised as the saviour of man

Servants of evil breed evil

Storm fills the clouda, i'll wait for the fall
Sowing the end, grace comes to fall
And now you're waiting for a sign, dreaming
The day is hear when all the world is thine
Because hell is thy home, yeah!

Hell is thy home, darkness thy destiny
Where you belong, no need for sympathy

Again you watch the millions die, no tear in your eyes
And your followers will hail, the forces of evil won't

In the great white hall
A monster Working on the fall
It's Bloody war will kill us all...

Hell is our Home , Darkness thy destiny
Where we belong, no need for sympathy

Hell is our Home , Darkness thy destiny
Where we belong, no need for sympathy

Hell Is our Home
