

(feat. Queen Latifah)

Well by now you know I-m insatiable
-Cause when you step to leave I want a full repeat, yeah
It-s a miracle, you were right inside my head
If the feeling-s nice, why not do it twice?
It is not against the law, no baby
I slave all through the week
And I need my release
I work hard so when I stop
I gotta get a little satisfaction for me
Hit it again
Don-t care if I-m late
The world just has to wait
Hit it again, hit it again, baby
Hit it again
I loved it the first time
Sent chills up through my spine
Hit it again, hit it again, baby
Deep emotion ain-t got nothing to do with it
And being in love ain-t really got a thing to do with it
I hope you understand
But I can-t worry if you don-t, oh no
If I can-t double up
It-s like I didn-t get enough
Call me greedy if you want, just do it
But it-s something that will never change
I don-t get no complaints
They know it when they ring my bell
That this could be a thing that could take a little while, well, well
Hit it again
Don-t care if I-m late
The world just has to wait
Hit it again, hit it again, baby
Hit it again
I loved it the first time
Sent chills up through my spine
Hit it again, hit it again, baby
I declare the point to be
Once is not enough for me
Two time lovin- makes me smile
One time love just ain-t my style
Repeat the love and I have found
More the second time around
It builds me up I love to love
And if I can-t hit it again
It ain-t natural
Hit it again
Don-t care if I-m late
The world just has to wait
Hit it again, hit it again, baby
Hit it again
I loved it the first time
Sent chills up through my spine
Hit it again, hit it again, baby
