

When I was a child, running in the night
I was afraid of what might be Hidin' in the dark, hidin' on the street for,
And of what was following me

The hounds of love are calling
I've always been a coward
And I don't know what's good for me
Well here I go-o
It's coming at me through the trees
Oh help me someone, help me please
Take your shoes off
And I will throw them in the lake
And I will be, two steps on the water

I found a fox, caught by dogs
He let me take him in my hands
His little heart, it beat so fast
That I am ashamed to be running away
From nothing real, I just can't deal, with this I feel ashamed to be there,

Amongst your hounds of loving
I feel your arms surrounding me
I've always been a coward
and I don't know what's good for me

Well here I go-o
Don't let me go-o
Hold me down
It's coming at me through the trees
Oh help me, someone, help me please
And take my shoes off
And I will throw them in the lake
And I will be, two steps on the water and do you know what I need do you know what I need
I need a hey-yeh-ye-yeh-ye-ye-yeh

yeh yeh yeh yeh yeh oh

And take my shoes off
And I will throw them in the lake
And I will be two steps on the water

I don't know what's good for me, I don't know what's good for me

Do you know what I need, do you know what I need?

I need a he-yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.
