

Before I commit
To satisfy, a narcissist
And I swear
I'd better choose
To travel time
Or be abused
But you've never been good enough
No they never said goodbye to you
But you've never been good enough
No, you've never been.
Before I explain
A bitter truth still remains,
All your feats, your chemicals
Will always be
So minimal
No, you've never been
All alone by yourself.
