Title: I Still Dream (Part II)

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Swallow your words to the back of my throat will you watch me choke
My dreams will blanket my heart
I'll find our ocean
I'll find our sunrise
I still dream
What will it take to catch my falling figure no eloquence can be found in these parting words I pray your ears shall find you're beautiful
I'm all alone
